PUBLISHERS LETTER

There's no place like the Mississippi Gulf Coast – and no one is a bigger advocate of our region than South Mississippi Living.

Since December, 2006, South Mississippi Living has endeavored to provide the Mississippi Gulf Coast with a professionally-published lifestyle magazine. Through stunning photography, design, and compelling writing, we share all that our staff knows and loves about South Mississippi with our readers.

Every month, South Mississippi Living takes our 93,500 monthly print and digital readers on a journey of discovery of interesting people, charming homes, delicious cuisine, amazing outdoor adventures, and unique events all wrapped in an inclusive package that celebrates our rich coastal culture, history, and lifestyle.

Our readership studies show that 76 percent of our readers frequently purchase products or services from ads seen in South Mississippi Living! Our readers are active, love to try new restaurants, attend community events, and use our calendars and feature stories to plan their month.

And, South Mississippi Living prides itself on our tremendous support of more than 100 local charities. Since our debut, we have donated $1 million in support of these organizations that give back so much to our communities.

Best of all, we provide this award-winning lifestyle magazine free to our readers – South Mississippi Living is not only the #1 regional magazine, it is also the best value. We are locally owned, written, and produced by locals for locals!

Thank you for your support,

Mary & Michael Sunderman
Associate Publisher and President & Publisher

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

South Mississippi Living is a leader in supporting the movement to “shop local” and promoting regional charities. A perfect example of this is our presenting sponsorship of Renaissance the Runway, a fashion show fundraiser benefitting the Bacot Foundation of South Mississippi. This event features dozens of local boutiques and community leaders, all while raising funds for charitable causes across the Coast.

We are so proud of our involvement in this “must-attend” event, and are thrilled to announce that $200,000 was raised in 2024!
